A Greenback Case.

HAVING been compelled to accept of Legal Tender Notes at par since the 17th day of December, 1862, for the rent of my handsome Brick Store, corner of Morrison and Front streets, I feel compelled to announce for the benefit of the public at large, that

Jacob Mayer

Leased the building of me on the 17th day of February, 1862, for a term of years, at which time there was no such currency in vogue, and it was understood the terms were CASH. Since the date above stated I have received the depreciated currency regularly under protest for the rent of the

CITY OF PARIS STORE,

Making less than two-fifths of the real amount said Mayer was to pay. He had secured the building at very advantageous rates, and even were he now to comply with his contract, and pay in COIN, would be getting the best bargain in the city. I make this statement to show the public what kind of a man he must be to take such undue advantage of the times to convert a few dollars to himself by LEGAL SWINDLING. The public can readily see what it costs to have such tenants. G. W. VAUGHN.

Willamette Theatre.—It is very certain that the play of "Lesbia," which has been produced at the Willamette Theatre two evenings this week, was a great success, but was not witnessed by the full houses it deserved. The scene is laid in Venice in the olden time—when the Council of Ten was the dreaded power of which story and fable have so often told us; and the play partakes of the full tragic power to be conceived and depicted from such a theme. The plot turns upon the ancient hate existing between two patrician families, lasting for two centuries and gratified in many a bloody duel, ending in nearly the extermination of each. The chief of the dreaded council, and head of one rival family was most excellently portrayed by Mr. G. B. Waldron, who acted the part of the old tottering despot with powerful effect, while Mr. Mortimer personated well the head of the other. Mrs. Getzler, as Viola, the daughter of the old Chief, won great applause, and was fully appreciated; but the part of Lesbia was the crowning feature of the play, as it was admirably and most artistically acted by Miss Ince. This lady has never, to our knowledge, done herself such great credit as in the masterly performance of this part, and we feel confident no one who was fortunate enough to witness the play fails to appreciate in the highest degree her splendid representations. There never has been a piece so well supported as this, of late, nor one where Miss Ince so perfectly did herself justice by appreciating and rendering a most elaborate and interesting part. Last evening "East Lynne" was repeated with great success. Miss Ince personating Lady Isabel and Madame Vine with her usual accomplishment. To-morrow evening will be the last appearance of the talented actress, Miss Ince, when she takes her farewell benefit, on which occasion she will appear as Rosalind, in one of Shakspeare's greatest comedies, "As You Like It," which will be put upon the stage in magnificent style. Then there will be an opportunity for those who can appreciate her worth to bestow their patronage in accordance with that idea of worth. We bespeak for her a crowded house.

The Fat of the Land.—In view of the fact that Thanksgiving is close at hand, and "Merry Christmas," with its unctuous beeves and plethoric turkeys little more than a month distant, it would ill-become us to spoil the appetites of our readers, so let us hope that no such ungenerous design will be attributed to us, when we say that over-fattened butcher's meat and poultry are not wholesome food. The animals we are to eat should be in a perfectly healthy condition when killed, and an ox, a pig, or a turkey, forced into an unnatural state of fatness, is not so. The prize cattle people generally so much admire, a few days prior to an event of feasting, look very tempting tricked out with ribbons and garlands, on a stall hook, and their ribs, rounds and sirloins make a dainty dish in holiday times, but the wholesomeness of it is quite a different thing, unless the animal has been properly fed and fattened. Chemists who have analyzed the meat of beasts fed contrary to the laws of nature, tell us that the juices are impoisoned by an undue supply of carbon. It is the same with all flesh and fowl, made blubbery under a forced system. Moderately fat meat that has acquired its fatness from natural sustenance, without cramming, is the only animal food fit for civilized man to eat, and one reason why game is more digestable and delicious, than other meat, is, that the wild birds and quadrupeds feed only on what is good for them, and have plenty of air and exercise. We don't want to interfere with any gourmand's enjoyment of his Thanksgiving dinner, but fact is fact, and whoever would have had best abstain from flesh made adipose by the stuffing process. It is not "the best the market affords"—quite the contrary.

"good digestion wait on appetite,
And health in both,"

Railroad Meeting.—A majority of the incorporators of the Willamette Railroad Company met last evening at the office of the Oregon Steam Navigation Company, corner of Stark and Front streets, in this city, and effected a temporary organization by the appointment of Capt. J. C. Ainsworth President, and Col. G. H. Belden Secretary. The meeting was quite satisfactory, and definite steps were taken for the accomplishment of the work. Books will be opened for stock subscriptions of lands and money on both sides of the river, and the construction of the road will be in accordance with the greatest liberality of the people in their respective localities. Provision was made for sufficient funds to defray the expenses of the canvass and place the work on a sure basis. There were present: Governor Gibbs, Capt. J. C. Ainsworth, W. S. Ladd, H. W. Corbett, Charles M. Carter, Col. G. H. Belden, and S. Ellsworth. It appears like a glorious piece of intelligence to know that such an important project is to be wrought in our Valley.

Moving into New Quarters.—Messrs. Ladd & Tilton have fitted up a new Banking Office in the building corner of Stark and Front streets, and commenced moving in yesterday. The new quarters will be decidedly more convenient than their former location, dispensing with the ascent of a flight of stairs in the transaction of business. The heavy safes were being lowered through the floor into the store of Messrs. Millard & Van Schuyver, and attracted considerable comment on the daily day system of making deposits in Portland, when safes were scarce, and very unsafe at that, bringing to memory the time when merchants stowed their surplus cash away in hollow ware, bake ovens and tin kettles for safety. Those were good old days for everybody, and many a retired merchant or active business man now dealing here remember them with pleasure. We are none the less prosperous to-day, although individually there are as hundreds to one to be supplied.

Could not Stand the Press.—The last ordinance of the City Council: "To regulate and restrain certain shows and public amusements in the city of Portland," was too heavy for the hurdy-gurdy or dance houses. The Hon. Member who supported the amendment to fill the blank with $300 per month in gold or silver coin, in advance, as a license fee for such amusements, may be entitled to the credit of having filled numerous halls—formerly lighted for "gay and festive" youth to dance, drink and frolic in—with a greater blank. They are now void spaces. Hurdy-gurdies have played out in Portland. We have advanced another step on the scale of morality. So mote it be.

Circuit Court.—The Grand Jury yesterday presented three indictments. The case of Sonnenberg vs. Hesselberg was submitted to the jury; case of Barbour vs. Field—judgment for plaintiff in the sum of $2,301. The case of the State vs. Bledsoe, on indictment for murder, is set for trial on Monday next, at 9 A. M.

A Dangerous Place.—On the corner of Fourth and Salmon streets improvements are needed, and if not made soon we may expect to record some serious accident to persons happening to travel that way. Our County Commissioners should grade the street, so as to enable citizens to walk around the new Court House block without danger of breaking their necks.

The Alfred Crosby.—This new and trim built schooner, constructed lately in the vicinity of Astoria, made her appearance in our waters yesterday freighted with 101 tons of Nanaimo coal for the Portland Gas Works. She will return in the course of a few days for another cargo, and will receive freight for Victoria.

Recovered.—Mr. Hornstrum recovered his freight truck from the river, at the Stark street ferry yesterday. The dead horse was cut loose, and floated away. We observe that the ferry boats were fastened at the landings on their trips yesterday.

The City Directory.—Mr. Bushwiler was actively engaged yesterday in canvassing for the forthcoming volume of the above work. He was very successful, and the document will be promptly published on the beginning of the New Year.

For Salem.—The steamer Relief arrived at Canemah last evening from Salem, and returns to-day, connecting with the Rival from this city.

Thanksgiving Proclamation.—We present to our readers this morning the annual Thanksgiving Proclamation of the Governor.

Interesting Marriage Ceremony.—Tome Antoine, the leader of the Exploring Expedition was last evening united in the bonds of matrimony to a lady of lofty aboriginal extraction; though not included in Burke's Peerage, we believe the pedigree may stand as follows: Lilose, eldest daughter of Jeni[illegible], chief of Skokomi, relict of Jocho, chief of Corinkon, and niece of Sosseton, chief of Saitka, and war chief of the Cowlitz. Great rejoicings ensued on the auspicious occasion.—Vancouver Times.

One thing about the first wedding brings queer thoughts to us. In spite of the scriptural truth, Adam and his wife were rather young to be married—some two or three days old, according to the sagest speculations of theologians—mere babies, larger, but no older—without experience, without a pot or kettle—nothing—but love and Eden.

A learned doctor once gave it as his opinion that tight lacing is a great public advantage, because it kills off the foolish girls, and leaves the wise only to grow into women.

Upon the marriage of Miss Wheat of Va., a gentleman hoped that her path might be flowery, and that she might never be thrashed by her husband.

HOSTETTER'S
CELEBRATED
STOMACH BITTERS.
THE OPERATION OF THIS PALATABLE REMEDY upon the stomach, liver and excretory organs is singularly soothing and conservative. It regulates, recruits and purifies them. Dyspepsia in all its forms yields to its control and invigorating properties.

Invigorate the System.
Vigorous digestion and the bile produce nutritious blood, and nutritious blood a healthy frame. Does the victim of a dyspeptic stomach and a disordered liver desire to know how the digestion may be improved, the bile and other fluids of the body purified?

Dr. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters
Will accomplish this desirable revolution in the system, regulating the secretions and excretions, giving tone to the animal juices which dissolve the food, strengthen every relaxed nerve, muscle and fibre, and bring the whole machinery of vitality into healthy and healthful play.

Strengthen the System.

THE ATTENTION OF THE TRADE IS PARTICUlarly requested to the above favorite brand of Oysters. Messrs. McMurray & Co. claim to be the only firm that still adheres to the plan of opening the Oyster in its raw state by hand, thus preserving intact its native delicacy and flavor. The superiority of this method over the one in general use, of steaming the Oysters in bulk in order to open them, whereby the natural liquor is lost and a manufactured one has to be substituted, is apparent, and recommends itself to all who have given this brand a trial.

SIMPLE DIVISION.—We [illegible] the other night on the subject of [illegible] that we thought [illegible] never having seen it in print, we [illegible] readers the benefit of it.

A Southern planter named [illegible] in the world [illegible] was [illegible] poor boy on the [illegible] shore of Maryland. One of the strongest and most marked traits in his character was an inordinate love of money. This, however, is characteristic of the people in them diggins, where they [illegible] strangers during brisk seasons, and [illegible] during dull times.

In the course of time P. was of age, and thought it about time to get married. He went to a neighboring village, and in course of time was introduced to a daughter of Judge B.

"Dang fine gal," said [illegible] later to his friends, who were gaining him an entrance among the [illegible].

"Very."

"How much might Judge B. be worth?"

"Why, about ten thousand dollars," was the reply.

"And how many children has Judge B.?" continued the inquirer.

"Only three."

"Three into ten goes three times and a third over," mentally cyphered P.

Here was a chance—a glorious chance—and he improved it too. He made love to the beautiful and unsophisticated daughter of the Judge, with all his possessions. Strange to say, for he was as uncouth a cub as ever went unlicked, his suit prospered, and they were married.

The honeymoon passed off as all other honeymoons do, and they were happy. The bride was lively and chatty, and often made allusions to her brothers and sisters. Startled at a number of names he thought should not be in the catalogue of relations, one evening at tea he said:

"My dear, I thought there were only three of you!"

"So there are by my pa, but my pa's first wife had eight more."

"Eleven into ten, no time, and nary one over," said the astonished P., who jumped up and kicked over the chair, and groaned in perfect agony.

"I'm sold! I'm sold! and sold a sight cheaper than an old bell-wether sheep at that!"

STREET SWEEPERS.

Said the Mayor of our city, "It much me distresses,
Our street are so dirty, no brooms and no men:"
"Never mind," said the girls, "we have all our new dresses;"
These good little girls of the city of Penn.

"Organdy, silk, barege and gray grenadine,
No need is there, surely, of brooms or of men:
Only let us alone and we'll sweep them all clean,"
Said those good little girls of the city of Penn.

VERY PLAIN.—A rich man sent for a physician upon some slight disorder. The physician felt his pulse, and asked:

"Do you eat well?"

"Yes," said the patient.

"Do you sleep well?"

"I do."

"Then," said the physician, "I can give you something to take away all that, if you think proper."

AN Arkansas editor got married recently, and has since become very enthusiastic. Hear him:

There is not in this wide world a happier life
That to sit by the stove-pipe and tickle your wife;
Taste the sweet of her lips in moments of glee,
And twist the cat's tail as she jumps on your knee.

CLOUDS.—"I wonder where these clouds are going?" sighed Flora, pensively, as she pointed with her thin, delicate finger to the heavy funeral masses that floated lazily in the sky.

"I think they are going to thunder," said her brother.

Sec. 8. That upon the discharge of any convict from the Penitentiary of this State, there shall be allowed and paid by the Superintendent to such convict, the sum of five dollars; for which the Superintendent shall take his receipt, which receipt shall be the authority of the Secretary of State to draw his warrant on the State Treasurer for the said amount in favor of the Superintendent.

Sec. 9. There shall also be allowed and paid to such convict the further sum of fifty cents for each and every merit mark with which the said convict stands credited in the merit books, subject however to a forfeiture of the cost price of tools and materials furnished said convict to work with, and upon that shall be injured or wasted through such convict's carelessness or neglect.

Sec. 10. Whereas, there is now no law [illegible] prison discipline in this State, and a necessity exists for such a law; therefore this act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

"CONSTITUTION WATER,"

THE ONLY REMEDY FOR DISEASES OF THE BLADDER, KIDNEYS,
Gravel, Dropsical Swellings,
GENITAL DEBILITY, ETC.

THE ASTONISHING SUCCESS WHICH HAS ATtended this invaluable medicine renders it the most valuable one ever discovered. No language can convey an adequate idea of the immediate and almost miraculous change which it occasions in the debilitated and shattered system. In fact, it stands unrivalled as a remedy for the permanent cure of the maladies above-mentioned, and also

DIABETES, IMPOTENCY,
LOSS OF MUSCULAR ENERGY,
PHYSICAL PROSTRATION,
INDIGESTION,
SEMINAL WEAKNESS,
GLEET, FLUOR ALBUS,

And in every disease in any way connected with the disorder or decay of the PROCREATIVE FUNCTIONS. Persons about to marry, if conscious of any weakness, should take the

CONSTITUTION WATER,

Whether broken down by excess, weak by nature, or impaired by sickness, the unstrung and relaxed organization is at once restored to [illegible] vigor and built up. Well may this celebrated medicine be called the

MEDICAL WONDER.

The stooping, trembling victim of depression and debility becomes a new man; his stomach reeks, he moves with a firm step; his mind, which was previously sunk in gloom or an almost idiotic apathy, becomes bright and active, and he goes forth regenerated, conscious of new vigor.—The medicine reaches the CONSTITUTION itself, and restores it to its normal condition.

IRRITATION OF THE NECK OF THE BLADDER,
INFLAMMATION OF THE KIDNEYS, AND
CATARRH OF THE BLADDER,
STRANGUARY AND BURNING, OR PAINFUL URINATING,
CALCULUS, GRAVEL,
BRICK DUST DEPOSIT, AND MUCOUS OR MILKY DISCHARGES AFTER URINATING.

For these diseases it is truly a sovereign remedy, and too much cannot be said in its praise. A single dose has been known to relieve the most urgent symptoms. TRY IT in these cases, and you will ever give praise to

CONSTITUTION WATER.

Males or Females,

Are you troubled with that distressing pain in the small of the back, and through your hips? CONSTITUTION WATER will relieve you like magic.
